Blood Drawing To Be Held At Youth Center Oct. 19

The Hancock County Blood Bank will hold its annual drawing on October 19th at the Bay St. Louis Youth Center.

For the past two years, this blood bank has been a source of life to a great many county residents.

During the past two months over 120 pints of blood have been called for. This overwhelming demand has completely diminished the supply of whole blood on hand.

The new supply must come from those of you who are willing and able to give a pint. The Blood Bank needs 125 or more pints to satisfy requests for blood, should they continue to be as numerous as during the past year.

Remember, when you give a pint of blood you are making an investment in your own life. Someday, you may need it!

St. Stanislaus

Homecoming To Be Held October 23

St. Stanislaus will celebrate the Homecoming of its Alumni on Sunday, October 23rd. The highlight of the day will be the football game between St. Stanislaus and De La Salle of New Orleans and the presentation of the Homecoming Queen, Miss Eleanor Kreiger and her Court.

Also, the St. Stanislaus Alumni Association will hold their annual winter meeting at 11 o'clock, during which the election of officers for the coming year will be conducted.

A dinner will be served in the St. Stanislaus cafeteria at noon for the members of the Alumni, the parents of the students and friends of the school. Proceeds from this will go toward the erection of the new permanent bleachers on the west side, and the pressbox.

The homecoming dance will be held in the Stanislaus gym from 8 to 12 on Sunday afternoon.

NOTICE

For the information of all parties concerned, I wish to clarify my position in the recent action taken by the Waveland School Board.

Rumor has it that I was the instigator of the movement to remove the grammar school children who attend the various schools in Bay St. Louis from the Waveland Public School Bus.

The motion to do so was made by Mr. Pete Noto and was seconded by Mrs. Lloyd Bourgeois. It was voted on and carried by the Board.

I wish to emphasize the fact, that as Chairman of the School Board, I do not have the right to vote on any and all matters brought before the Board.

PAUL R. HENLEY
Chairman Waveland School Board.

A JOB FOR YOU

The Bay St. Louis Youth Center kicked off its annual Fund Raising Drive last week. To date, they have not received a penny.

The "Teen Age Club" has proven in past years to be the only means of recreation for the youngsters of this and neighboring communities other than athletic and school events.

A great many of you have children who attend Youth Center functions. Without the necessary funds, it will cease to operate.

The quota this year is $1,500.

This may seem to be a great deal to some of you, but it is money well spent.

As was revealed at the recent Chamber of Commerce meeting, "No organization can survive without the moral and financial support of their community."

It is a must that the members of this community help put this drive over the top as early as possible. Don't dig until it hurts, but please scratch the surface. A dollar here and a dollar there will get the job done.

St. Joseph Academy Alumnae To Hold Annual Homecoming Sunday

At 2:00 o'clock, a short business meeting will be held in the school gymnasium. Following this, there will be a reunion with the Sisters, classmates and friends.

Prizes will be awarded to each member present with the largest class attendance.

In the event that it would be impossible for visitors to hear Mass in their own Parish, the Mass will be held at Our Lady of the Gulf at 11:30 p. m. There is also a Mass at 5:30 p. m. at Our Lady of the Gulf and at St. Rose de Lima.

The officers serving for the year are as follows: Mrs. Ben Hille, president; Mrs. Margaret Otis, 1st vice president; Mrs. George Anderson, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Curtis Mathe, secretary; Mrs. Beverly Zimmerman, corresponding secretary; Miss Doris Carrio, treasurer; Mrs. Pat Murphy, parliamentarian and Sister Albertine, Moderator.

Public Invited To UN's 10th Anniversary

The ringing of church bells at five forty-five and again at seven forty-five on the evening of Monday, October 24th will signify Hancock County's recognition of the tenth anniversary of the founding of the United Nations. An inspiring program will take place immediately after the bells are silenced at 8 o'clock in the Bay High Auditorium, with the public invited and urged to attend. After the presentation of the flags of the United States and the United Nations, there will be several choral selections by the choir of the churches.

Mrs. C. C. McDonald will be the main speaker of the evening and her talk will highlight the ideals, the success and the frustrations of the UN during its first ten years and an evaluation of its importance at the moment and for the future.

This program will be presented under the joint auspices of the United Council of Church Women and The League of Women Voters of Bay St. Louis.

Boy Scout Court Of Honor Monday

A Court of Honor for Boy Scouts of the Bay-Pass District will be held at the Courthouse here at 8:00 p. m. Monday. At this ceremony, boys will be advanced to higher ranks in scouting and merit badges will be awarded to those who have earned them. It is estimated that approximately 100 Boy Scouts of the area will receive advancement or other awards.

Dr. R. C. Stewart, Pass Christian, Chairman of the District, said that usually there are three or four of these ceremonies each year. He pointed out that the public is invited and in fact urged to attend.

"These boys who have worked hard and long on the advancements," said Dr. Stewart, "and they deserve recognition for their efforts. The Boy Scout program not only helps the boys but it also helps the entire community. We feel that the community should get behind the boys and the least anyone can do is attend the Court of Honor and let them know that the importance of their work is appreciated."

C. of C. Holds Annual Meeting Monday Night

The Hancock County Chamber of Commerce held their Annual Membership meeting Monday night with an enthusiastic group of members.

A business meeting preceded the shrimp supper. Different members were called on to express their opinion of the chambers activities. Each and everyone brought out the fact that no organization can survive without the Moral and Financial support of their community. Regardless of the size, a community must have a Chamber of Commerce as it is a sign of community cooperation.

Four new directors were elected to serve on the board for two years. They are as follows: C. C. McDonald, Jr., Henry Osoinach, Dr. Walter Russo and T. T. Robin. President Alden Mauffray welcomed them and said he was sure that they would endeavor to carry on the good work of the chamber. He expressed his thanks to the retiring members Joseph Scharff, Ben Hille, and Lambert T. Boyd, Jr., for the splendid work they accomplished while serving as members of the board.

The Board members for the coming year in addition to the aforementioned are Bob Hamilton, Hardin Shattuck, J. Cyril Glover, Howard Adams, E. J. Arceneaux and Alden Mauffray.

These gentlemen would appreciate any and all suggestions for a better and more progressive community.

Judge Sebe Dale, Columbia, Miss., Circuit Judge of the adjoining district and a tribunal composed of the three election commissioners of Hancock County, Robert Genin, Alvin Genin, and Dan M. Russell, Jr., yesterday, upheld the decision of the voters of Beat 4, Hancock County, to list Jack Lott, Kiln, Miss., as their Democratic nominee for the coming General Election in November.

Attorneys for the contestant, Jesse Shanks and Bill Andrews of Purvis, Miss., indicated their intentions to take an appeal to the Supreme Court. Counsel for the contestant, Jack Lott, was Joe Blass, prominent attorney from Wiggins, Miss.

The findings of the Court are as follows: STATE OF MISSISSIPPI COUNTY OF HANCOCK LANDER NECAISE vs. JACK LOTT

No. 3119 FINDINGS OF SPECIAL TRIBUNAL

In the case at bar, the findings, reasoning and opinion given is that of the Special Judge and is not necessarily concurred in or harmonious on the part of the three Commissioners and is therefore the finding of the Special Judge and not the findings of the three Election Commissioners.

The purpose and intent is to determine the honest and fair expression of the voters in District 4 as to whom they would have as their Supervisor and the spirit of the law is, if that can be ascertained reasonably and fairly and with a degree of certainty, that must be done and if that cannot be done from the entire proceedings, then a new election must be called.

The comment and reasoning of the Judge on the votes in the Fenton and Kiln Precincts are not conclusive findings and are not attempted to be conclusive findings but a matter of reasoning and deduction for the purpose of trying to arrive at the honest and fair outcome of the Supervisor's election and in no wise will pertain any other contest that might arise.

This drive is state-wide and Master Sergeant J. C. Roland of the local Company "C" is strongly urging all members to join in and help raise the total of the ranks of the National Guard in Mississippi.

The two precincts in question are Fenton and Kiln. At those two precincts, the Contestee Lott received 349 votes and the Contestant, Necaise, received 291 votes; and for the entire district, the Contestee, Lott, received 570 votes and the Contestant Necaise, 517 votes.

In the contest on the two precincts, the Contestant has questioned 21 votes. For whatever reasons were, that is the number questioned by name and for specific reasons.

At the Fenton Precinct, the Contestant has raised and questioned 21 votes there for specific reasons and naming the voters; a total of 42 votes. Under the law, Contestant would have been required to show for whom those 42 questioned votes were cast for. It has not been done with the exception of four votes which were soldier votes at Fenton, three being voted for Contestee, Lott, and one for Contestant, Necaise.

If we were to follow the reasoning of charging Contestee with the votes questioned, 41, and 1 to Contestant Necaise, that would change the results in votes but not results in final outcome. Charging all except one to Contestee Lott and declaring them void and charging them against him, he would still be the nominee by some 13 votes. That is one line of reasoning and perhaps expresses the intent of what the voters tried to do.

Another line of reasoning is this. At the Kiln Precinct, Contestee Lott received 53 absentee ballot votes and Contestant Necaise received 37 absentee ballot votes. At the Fenton Precinct, Contestee Lott received 13 absentee ballot votes and Contestant Necaise received 17. The Court, frankly, is of the opinion that there is a grave question but what many of the absentee ballots are void and should be left completely out of the picture.

So, if we follow the line of reasoning of doing away with the absentee votes at the Kiln and Fenton Precincts, that would still leave, casting them out, the Contestee, Lott, the nominee by a vote almost as great as the 53 as declared by the Executive Committee.

But, going further, and now we come to the question of the box of Kiln as a whole and whether it should be completely left out of the picture. Perhaps there is some question and reason as to why it should be left completely out; and, if it were left completely out of the picture, the absentee votes at Fenton, the Contestee Lott would still be the nominee.

So, following three lines of reasoning; of giving the Contestant the benefit of all the questions raised as to the box at Kiln being completely disregarded and with the one exception of not holding the Fenton Precinct as void, following the lines of reasoning deduction, the Court is of the opinion that it substantiates and affirms approves and ratifies what the Executive Committee did in refusing to pass on the matter and leaving their former decision intact.

Insofar as the Fenton Precinct is concerned, there would be one claim why it should be declared void and disregarded and the Court does not think that claim should be sustained. The proceedings at the Fenton box is just about as regular as can be had in the average voting precinct of our rural areas. There is no question but that some of the absentee ballots were void and must be discounted and the Court took that into consideration in fact by discounting only those in question which would be 21 which would not change the final result as to who is the nominee.

The chief question raised as to the Fenton Precinct to declare it void is that there were no certifications of election on the forms put therein and that there was one vote difference on the tally sheets. The tally sheets themselves are neat and fairly well kept and on one tally sheet the votes were counted and the number set down at the end as required. That tally sheet gave Mr. Lott 91 votes and Mr. Necaise 64. The other tally sheet was tallied but the numbers had not been set down in figures at the end as in the other but a count of that tally sheet gave Mr. Lott 92 votes and Mr. Necaise 64, so that the one tallied is in favor of the Contestant insofar as the one which is added. Following the tally sheet that has 92 votes, it makes a greater number of ballots received. Both of those tally sheets are properly signed and completely express the tallying and finding of the managers.

The purpose of the certification of election and the results as determined from the tally sheets are put thereon in duplicate and, primarily, the purpose is to show that they have again approved the tally as made and are certifying it as they found. It is usually done in two copies, one copy being put in the box, the other copy remaining out so that an announcement can be made of the returns of that box after the election has been determined. The Court does not believe that the failure of the election managers to sign this certificate of election is fatal and voids that election.

Consequently, leaving entirely out of sight the Kiln Precinct, and declaring it absolutely void and that would be about one third or a little more of all the votes in the district. Counting the Fenton box with the exception of absentee ballots, and the Court is frank that these should be taken out of the picture for various reasons, as have been set out, the nominee would clearly be the one who was declared the nominee by the Executive Committee.

As far as counting out the Fenton and the Kiln Precincts, declaring them void and declaring the Contestant the nominee based on 427 votes against 660 votes would clearly not be the people of District 4 of Hancock County expressing their choice for Supervisor of that district.

Therefore, the Court, and being the Court alone and not concurred in, necessarily by either of the Election Commissioners, is finding that giving the broadest construction to the objections raised by the Contestant either by completely disregarding Kiln Precinct or by completely disregarding the absentee ballots at both precincts or by charging Contestee Lott with the 42 questioned ballots at both precincts with the exception of one, the fact remains that the Contestee, Jack Lott, is the nominee in the Democratic Primary held on August 23, 1955, in District 4 of Hancock County, Mississippi, and it is so held by the Judge sitting as Special Judge and will be the findings of the Court. An Order will be taken accordingly.

This, not being a unanimous decision, if in no wise prevents an appeal and an appeal may be had in due course as prescribed and should be had to determine whether or not this Judge is wrong as he so often is and as he himself wants to know. If he is wrong, he wants it put right.

Mrs. Mauffray Elected Member At Large of NCCW

Attending the 21st annual Convention of the Natchez Diocesan Council of the National Council of Catholic Women held in Laurel last Saturday and Sunday from Bay St. Louis were Mesdames Alden Mauffray, A. K. Martinovich, G. F. Stevenson and Miss Kathleen Renshaw.

One hundred and sixty-five women were registered at Pinehurst Hotel, headquarters for the convention, seventeen of whom were from the Bay St. Louis District of the Council. Two members of the Bay St. Louis District, Mrs. Alden Mauffray and Miss Mayme Hannahan of McComb were elected members at large.

On Sunday morning at 7:30 the convention Mass was celebrated by the Most Rev. R. O. Gerow, Bishop of Natchez, and the congregation participated in the Dialogue Mass, singing and praying the Mass together in English, while the Bishop said the Mass in Latin. Special music was prepared for this Mass.

At the luncheon held on Sunday in the American Legion Club, the members from Laurel served excellent food on tables prettily with special floral arrangements appropriate to the occasion and in keeping with the theme of the convention—"Our Lady, Queen of the Most Holy Rosary." White and blue pom-pom chrysanthemums formed a long rosary on the speakers table, and white and blue flowers surrounding small statues of the Blessed Mother were used in various other places.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Curda and daughter, Dorothy, of Chicago, have been visiting friends in the Bay. Ed, an ardent fisherman has made some fine catches with Bob Genin and Herbert Wise, although having reel trouble. He has been coming here on his vacations for a number of years and always sends some fish back home to the folks!

Some large specks were caught on the R. R. bridge Monday. Maybe the big ones are moving in - about time.

Golf playing is really picking up among the young players of the Bay at the Pass Christian Isles Course.

Among the group seen Sunday were Lucas Pecheu, Red Reimke, Teddy Morel, Jeffrey Favre, Buddy Bitalo, Russell Elliott and Bobby Rayard. They are playing regularly and are having lots of fun and improving their scores.

Hunting will be coming into its own shortly. The squirrel season opens on October 15. Let's have the dope, boys!

CHANNEL SQUATTER

A channel squatter is the main reason large boat owners aren't more considerate to fishermen. They have the whole lake to fish in, but anchor in the channels instead, ignoring the fact that these channels are necessary traffic routes. One more thing - Channel squatters never catch any fish.

TACKLE BOX TIPS

A rubber band is as handy in the tackle box as it is around the home or office. When the bass start hitting in the lily pads and you're minus a weedless lure the little rubber band will save the day. Knot it in the eye of the hook and stretch it over the barb - the result is an excellent weedless hook. Scotch tape is another handy tackle box item. If you have to make an emergency reel repair stick the tape screws and parts to a piece of the tape. You won't loose them this way, and their position on the tape also comes in handy for making emergency rod repairs or carrying loose hooks.

In line with the new procedure set up by the Board of Pass Christian Isles Golf Club, for notifying you of the social activities to take place at the Club for the coming month, there are the dates and the names of the hosts and hostesses who have agreed to plan and take charge of each event.

October 16th - Sunday night supper, Mrs. John Judd and Mrs. A. B. Tipping.

October 22nd - "Come as Your Secret Desire" Costume Party, Mrs. L. S. Capehart, Mrs. Sheila Loker, Mrs. J. Paul Ratcliff, Jr.

Boy you talk about fish stories. Well here is one for the books. One of our fellow workers here at the Sea Coast Echo, J. G. Treutel, of Clermont Harbor, is an amateur tropical fish collector, and over the weekend, while in New Orleans, Goodie purchased 9 of these fish specimens.

Before he left the big city he was inspecting his fish and found that one of the females was bearing. Immediately Goodie began to separate the fish and when the mother fish had stopped he had a total of 53 youngsters.

Yes 53, count them. That is a pretty good trick. Buy nine fish and come home with 62. I guess some of our fishermen wished they had that kind of luck when they went out for trout, mackerel or some other variety of eating fish.

But as I said this happening is a rarity among fish stories.

Star Of The Week

Billy Rhodes has been selected as the first player to receive this honor for the second time this season.

Rhodes was chosen because of his fine running and hustle in the Rockchaw's losing effort against Picayune Friday night.

Although Stanislaus was behind from the beginning of the game, Rhodes kept Picayune on their toes with his brilliant break away running.

He was considered a touchdown threat throughout the entire contest.

Following the game the one question on the lips of the picayune fans was, "who was that little halfback?"

Rhodes scored the only Stanislaus touchdown of the night on a beautiful 28 yard run on a cross buck off his own right tackle.

He evaded a number of would-be tacklers and left several in his wake as he crossed over into the land of milk and honey.

On the last play of the ball game Rhodes caught a pass from Kenny Artigues and raced it back for nearly thirty yards across the mid-field stripe before he was pulled down by the safety man, who was the last person between him and the goal line.

Rhodes is an inspiration to all of his teammates. He never quits and always hustles and gives the game everything he has.

He is a shy youngster, who would rather give all the credit to anyone else but himself. Billy is only a junior and this is his third year in which he will letter on the varsity squad.

Yes, that is Billy Rhodes, "Mr. Inside" and "Mr. Outside" of the Stanislaus Rockchaws, who turns opposing tacklers inside out when he starts on his way toward their goal.

Rocks Drop Third; Go Against Unbeaten Notre Dame Friday Night

The St. Stanislaus Rockchaws ran into a tidal wave in the form of the Picayune Maroon Tide last Friday night and were swamped 27-7.

From the opening whistle Picayune moved fast and hard and kept Stanislaus in its own territory for more than a quarter.

Passes proved to be the difference in the contest between the two sister county rivals.

Although James Holcomb, quarterback for Picayune, completed only four passes, three of these were the key plays of the game.

Two were good for touchdowns and the other placed the ball on the two yard line, from where Holcomb sneaked over for another tally.

The lone Rockchaw T. D. came after Stanislaus moved the ball deep into Picayune territory on some fine runs by Billy Rhodes, Kenny Artigues and Alfonso Vasquez.

Rhodes on a cross buck from the 28 yard line, evaded several tacklers and crossed the goal line. Kenny Artigues added the extra point and that was all the Stanislaus scoring for the night.

The line play was good. Both teams had a hard charging line.

Commenting on the game Coach Farley Day said, "Fumbles hurt us a lot. Another thing that hurt us was the fact that we lost our two top fullbacks on injuries."

"J. E. Loiacano was injured early in the game and Mitchell De Cuir was injured in the second half. We were slow in the first quarter but played fairly good in the second quarter and in the last half."

Tomorrow night the Rocks meet the Rebels of Notre Dame, an unbeaten team from Biloxi.

"Notre Dame has an unbeaten team and a good team," Coach Day said.

They have several outstanding boys on their team and have played good ball all season."

Bay St. Louis Business Activity Drops 2 Percent During August

Data collected from five major cities in the Biloxi-Gulfport area placed August business activity approximately 9 per cent above August 1954 and 3 per cent above July 1955, according to the current issue of the Mississippi Business Review, monthly publication of the Business Research Station of the School of Business and Industry at Mississippi State College.

Four of the five cities from which data were collected showed increased business activity when compared to August 1954.

Severe indicators from Biloxi gave that city 14 per cent more business activity than a year ago and 7 per cent more than during July 1955. Indicator gains over August 1954 were bank deposits, 24 per cent; postal receipts, 18 per cent; telephones in service, 12 per cent; electric connections, 2 per cent; gas connections, 0.2 per cent and city sales tax collections. Indications showing money orders issued declined 6 per cent from the same month during the previous year.

The city of Gulfport reported August 1955 business activity 8 per cent in excess of that for August and less than 1 per cent below July 1955. Increases for the August-to-August comparison were bank deposits, 8 per cent; postal receipts, 4 per cent; telephones in service, 5 per cent; electric connections, 4 per cent; gas connections, 4 per cent and city sales tax collections, 16 per cent. One indicator, money orders issued, declined less than one-half of 1 per cent.

Bay St. Louis had 21 per cent less business activity during August 1955 and 2 per cent less than a month earlier. Comparisons with August 1954 gave the following indicator changes: bank deposits, minus 4 per cent and telephones in service, plus 12 per cent. City sales tax collections for August were 24 per cent in excess of those for the previous month.

Pass Christian had 3 per cent more business activity during the month than a year earlier but 8 per cent less than during July 1955. Bank deposits were up by 4 per cent for the comparison with August 1954, postal receipts by 18 per cent, telephones in service by 4 per cent and gas connections by 6 per cent. Indicators showing declines were money orders issued, 4 per cent and city sales tax collections, 0.4 per cent. City sales tax collections were 8 per cent below those for the previous month.

Picayune reported a gain of approximately 1 per cent when business activity for August was compared with that for August 1954 but a loss of 2 per cent below that for July 1955. Bank deposits increased over those for August by 9 per cent and telephones in service by 10 per cent. Decreases were shown in money orders issued, 18 per cent and postal receipts, 5 per cent.

Parents Urged To Vaccinate Now; Protect Against Next Polio Season

Polio vaccine is now in the hands of most of the physicians and druggists throughout Mississippi, according to Dr. A. L. Gray, Director of Preventable Disease Control of the State Board of Health.

In calling the attention of the public to the availability of the Salk vaccine, the state director urges parents of children in the 5 through 9 age group to have these children vaccinated now by their private physicians to be sure of protection before the next polio season.

"The supply of vaccine available is still short of that needed, and will be so for several weeks; but already there is enough available for the first injection for most of the children in the 5 through 9 age group who have not had vaccine," stated Dr. Gray.

In an effort to secure the most effective use of the vaccine while the supply is limited, the State Advisory Committee on Voluntary Control of Distribution of Polio Vaccine has stipulated that at present the vaccine should be only for the 5 through 9 age group. The Committee's decision is based on current information as to the total supply available and the state population in the age groups most susceptible to polio.

The American Academy of Pediatrics, meeting this week in Chicago, expressed faith in the effectiveness and reasonable safety of the vaccine by accepting and recommending its use. Last month in annual session the Mississippi Academy of General Practitioners did likewise. Family physicians throughout the state are now giving the vaccine, which has already had extensive use in Mississippi. In the more than 180,000 injections already given to Mississippi children there have been no unfavorable reactions — even less than from other commonly used vaccines.

"When given in a series of three injections, properly spaced, the vaccine will prevent at least 3 out of 4 crippling. It is the real hope of preventing most of the polio crippling and children from 5 through 9 years should get it now. Parents should not expect vaccine for their children under five and over nine years of age until the vaccine is more plentiful. The priority group was set up because it is in that age range that polio strikes the hardest," stated Dr. Gray.

To properly space the three injections of vaccine, for the maximum protection, before the usual upsurge of polio next summer, vaccination should begin now. The first two shots should be given 3 to 8 weeks apart, and the third should be given up to 7 months after the second.

The State Board of Health and the county health departments will initiate a program later, when enough vaccine becomes available. But this forthcoming vaccination program against polio, made possible by Federal appropriation, cannot reach more than one-third of the population in the state in the priority groups designated in the special act,

Miss. Water Well Contractors Hold Second Annual Meet In Pass

The Annual meeting of the Mississippi Water Well Contractors Association will be held in Pass Christian on Friday, October 14, in the Memorial Park. A general get-together will start the day at 10 a. m. with a business session and out door entertainment during the afternoon. In the evening a seafood supper for members and their families will be served.

An open forum is scheduled for 7:30 on the water supplies of the State, including construction of well and pumping equipment. A board consisting of contractors, well equipment manufacturers, and pump manufacturers will make up the panel.

The association is made up of water well contractors from the entire State, well equipment manufacturers and suppliers, engineers and geologists. Since its organization five years ago, it has developed its own proposal for conservation of water in the State, and has cooperated closely with the Water Resources Commission in its recent survey of the State's water supplies. The Association was formed for the better relationship among contractors for the probable development and conservation of underground water supplies and to promote standards that would assure safe and pure supplies of water. It is an active chapter of the National Water Well Association.

This is the second time that the Association has met on the Coast, previously having held their meeting in conjunction with the N. W. W. A. in Biloxi in 1952. Present officers include J. R. Lips of Pope as president; J. C. Reeves of Amory as Vice-President; and Fred Sutter of Pass Christian as Secretary-Treasurer.

Mr. Sutter, life-long resident of the Coast, was co-organizer of the Association in 1950. He is owner of Sutter Well Works, which was organized in 1890 by his father, the late John A. Sutter, when the first artesian wells were drilled on the Coast.

The "Wind" that flamed a new era
for the Gulf South

In 1870, an ice plant in Shreveport, Louisiana, drilled 965 feet searching for artesian water... only to find it was too salty to use. Later a watchman spotted what he called a "wind" coming from the mouth of the well. He struck a match and flame shot upward. It was natural GAS! Gas from the well was piped to the ice plant where it furnished light for many years.

This was the unheralded birth of a new era for this part of the country... the natural gas era that was to lift the Gulf South in later years to its spot as brightest star on the industrial horizon. Today, as a citizen of the Gulf South, you have every right to be proud of the progress made by the oil and gas industry and its important role in helping the industrial south to grow. It's a great place to live and work... let's keep it that way.

Today their expenditures account for one dollar of every eighteen in the channels of Mississippi trade. As expanded oil and gas production justifies a greater investment.

CLOVER PLANTING AND MANAGEMENT

Two methods of getting back volunteering stands of clover in high sods are to graze the area down close, or to use the moving machine to get off the grass. If the grass you remove in good, stack it or bale it for hay.

Don't plan to have clovers on more than one-fourth to one third of your pasture acreage. This will be all you'll need. Then you will still have three-fourths to two-thirds of your sod land left for frosted grass grazing.

Many areas will need replanting to clovers. Use the A. S. C. program and replant at recommended seeding rate per acre. Do not sow clover seed in high sod.

Volunteering winter peas will come through heavy sods. However, if they are being replanted for the first time, do not sow the seed on top of the ground in high sod. Get the sod off and drill in the peas. The sod seeder is a good machine for this.

Winter peas are recommended for planting in Bermuda and Johnson grass sods.

If you plan to plant cover this month in a cereal and the cereal has not been planted, plant them at the same time. If you have oats or wheat that was planted in September and want to get clover in it, graze the cereal down and either drill the clover seed or sow it on top of the ground.

TRACTOR CARE

Make that expensive farm tractor last longer. As soon as you are through with it for the season, give it a thorough check up.

Make a list of all needed parts and order them. Give the tractor a complete lubrication job. Clean all parts thoroughly. Protect the radiator. If you plan to continue use of the tractor during the winter, put anti-freeze in the radiator. If it is to be stored, jack it up off the ground and put it under shelter.

HOG PRODUCTION

The long-time hog outlook appears favorable. On the short time basis, hog production like any other farm enterprise, has its ups and downs. But with population constantly increasing, meat consumption will also increase.

Mississippi is still in a deficit hog production area. Mississippi packers import most of their hog supplies from out of state. Here you can increase production to meet local demand.

Hog production is adaptable to just about any size farm and fits well with other farm operations.

In producing hogs for market, efficiency is what counts. Plenty of home grown feed is a must. Sanitation is a prime consideration in profitable hog production.

For more information on producing hogs at a profit, see your local County Agent and get a copy of Extension Publication 247, Hog Management.

INSECT CONTROL

Don't give boll weevils and other cotton insects food and a place to hibernate. As soon as you have picked out a cotton field, cut and shred the stalks. This removes much of the winter feed for the weevils and at the same time protects the soil from sheet erosion. Cutting and stalks now, will reduce the number of boll weevils going into hibernation and make next year's early season control easier. This is especially true in normal weevil "hot spots."

Those attending the meeting were Edith Lozes, Lucy Kovace, Catherine Furchner, Gerry Bishop, Louise Kelly, Dot Hayden, Ruby Noto, Mary Greco, Dot Pogue, Marion Van Landingham, Dora Ellen Pickwick and Leada Adam.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served by Edith Lozes and Lucy Kovace.

High School Bands Invited To Miss. State

State College, Miss. (Special) Free admission to the North Texas State-Mississippi football game and a chance to see and hear one of the biggest bands ever assembled in the South—these are two of the treats in store for high school students who show up for High School Day activities at State College on October 29.

Band director, W. Thomas West said he has invited all high school bands of Mississippi to see the game as guests of the college, and to join the Maroon Band in putting on a gigantic halftime show now being planned. Invitations for all high school students to attend the annual event have been mailed to school superintendents of the state.

West said high school bands planning to participate in the event are expected to arrive on the campus in time for a 10 a. m. rehearsal when they and the Maroon Band will be welded into the colossal musical unit that will perform that afternoon.

The rehearsal will end promptly at 11:15, leaving plenty of time for tours of the campus, getting lunch, and seeing friends before the game begins at 2 p. m. Mr. West said, "A special section of the football stadium will be reserved for the bands."

Mr. West and three visiting bandmasters will take turns in leading the massed band. Victor Zajer, director of the Philadelphia High School Band and president of the the Mis-issippi Music Educators Association; Houston Jenks, director of the Meridian High School Band and a vice president of the MMEA; and Robert Work, director of the University High School Band, Oxford, and also a vice president of the MMEA.

The massed bands will form giant formations on the field in addition to playing such numbers as "Dixie," "Hail State," and State's alma mater, "Maroon and White."

Marines Announce Program For College Students

The Marine Corps Officer Procurement Officer has announced that applications are now being accepted from college students who desire to earn a commission in the Marine Corps while completing college.

Freshmen, sophomores and juniors, pursuing a course of study other than pre-medical, pre-dental, theology, pharmacy or music, are being selected for the Platoon Leaders Class. Law School students are also eligible. All training is conducted at the Marine Corps Schools, Quantico, Virginia; during two, six-week summer classes. Candidates receive $160.00 as pay for the first class and $200.00 for the second class. Uniforms, food and travel allowance are also furnished. Members of the Platoon Leaders class are deferred from induction. Commissions are tendered upon graduation from college.

Seniors and graduates may apply for the Officers Candidate Course or the Aviation Officer Candidate Course. Commissions are tendered to candidates who successfully complete a ten-week training course after graduation from college. Aviation OCC graduates are assigned to flight training immediately upon being commissioned. Mid-term graduates are now being enrolled for classes convening in January and March 1956.

Ground officers are assigned to the Officers' Basic School for five additional months of instruction. Many officers then receive special training in various fields including artillery, infantry, tracked vehicles, supply engineering and others.

Successful candidates are appointed to a commissioned rank in the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve and must agree to serve in active duty for three years.

Anyone interested may see or write to Captain Dan Mills, Room 19-24, Post Office Building, Birmingham, Alabama.

Remodeled Cement Plant
in the Mobile Area

Remodeled Plant Will Provide Improved
Storing And Shipping Facilities...More Cement
...Better Work Facilities For Employees

Engineering work is going forward rapidly on the remodeling program for Ideal Cement Company's Mobile plant. The engineering is being done by the Stearns-Roger Manufacturing Company. In the remodeling program, there will be a handsome, new utility building which will house offices, chemical and physical laboratories, and wash and change facilities for all employees. Harry Inge Johnstone, Mobile architect, is presently working on plans for this building. Some work will be done on the plant as soon as engineering has been completed, and the main remodeling will begin just as soon as the new office building has been constructed.

A complete and thoroughly modern dust collection system is being designed which will make the plant practically dust-free in its operation.

This remodeling of the Ideal cement plant will greatly increase plant efficiency—will provide more cement for the Gulf coast area. The remodeling program will cost an estimated $6,000,000. This money is in addition to the present investment in the Mobile plant.

Ideal's investment in modernizing and remodeling these facilities indicates our faith in the tremendous future of the Gulf coast area, and our keen desire to keep pace with the growing cement needs of the region. From the great interest which has been shown, we wanted you to know the progress which is being made at the Mobile plant.
